

NORTHERN BC

Unique. Eclectic. Diverse.

This vast region of Northern British Columbia extends up to the Yukon/Alaska border with sweeping glaciated valleys, volcanic rock formations, towering mountain ranges and mist-shrouded coast. Northern BC is also home to the ancient Great Bear Rainforest, and the Haida Gwaii archipelago.

GROW MAKE BAKE RAISE BC

Why BC Farmers' Markets?

- Fresh, local, always in season
- Invest in local people & communities
- Connect with local farmers & food

The BC Farmers' Market Trail is the definitive guide to 145+ farmers' markets, where you can find fresh, local, in season foods, and connect with growers and makers in each community. This is an initiative of the BC Association of Farmers' Markets, a non-profit that supports and promotes its member farmers' markets so local food continues to thrive.

Experience Local Flavours at the Farmers' Market

Each farmers' market in Northern BC is a unique reflection of the community, land and people, and a place where food producers can connect with neighbours and visitors. Visit the 12 farmers' markets in the region to taste the unique flavours of birch syrup, haskap berries, candied salmon, and wild mushrooms. While you're there, fill up your bag with freshly harvested greens, flavourful preserves, heritage grains, and fresh baked bread.

Travel from community to community and explore the volcanic valleys, glacial lakes, snowy mountains and the culturally-rich Haida Gwaii - the magic of Northern BC will captivate you.

More to do here:

- Highlights include Monkman Provincial Park, Tatshenshini-Alsek Provincial Park (UNESCO World Heritage Site), Haida Gwaii, and the epic 2,237 km Alaska Highway
- The "Serengeti of the North," the Muskwa-Kechika is one of the largest, most biodiverse areas in the Rocky Mountain range
- The Skeena River flows from Terrace to Prince Rupert and offers fishing, hiking, waterfalls and magnificent views
